

Share your experience & get connected to research opportunities!

TEXT OR CALL: 541-972-3012
EMAIL: CPODATACOLLECTIVE@UOREGON.EDU

COMPENSATION:

- Receive $15 for initial survey and for each 6 month follow-up survey

ELIGIBILITY:

- Parent/person with pregnancy history in the past year
- 18 years or older
- History of substance use disorder treatment and/or active use in the past year
- Interested in being contacted about research opportunities

The Center on Parenting and Opioids (CPO) is a collaborative effort, funded by the National Institute on Drug Abuse (NIDA). The Data Collective seeks to enroll people from across the country who have been or are currently pregnancy and parenting, and who have a history of or current substance use.

The principal investigator for the Data Collective is Dr. Leslie Leve along with co-investigator, Dr. Camille Cioffi.

The Center on Parenting and Opioids

CPO.UOREGON.EDU

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON